Polarised populace

The land's mass of people, currently estimated to be 1,400 million, with their social backgrounds, economic disparity, opinions hard to change, food habits, languages, education levels, health/illness status, awareness of their role in safeguarding the country's integrity at very low levels, public behaviour and not to forget their utter disregard to the land's laws, all factors taken one at a time or all of these together provide a unique example of a country hosting an unmanageable populace polarised to an extent beyond words. We Indians carry our multiple identities, the dualities of our life, the vast variety of languages in which we interact among ourselves, often not keen on proper comprehension of what they hear, uncompromising culinary preferences, both intra-family and inter-family as well as intra-faith and inter-faith, amidst which unimaginable range of diversity, the society appears to be in a socially equilibrium state, a miracle by any measure, notwithstanding flare-ups in the open space across the country.

We have heard from public speakers of all hues on many occasions and from many platforms pointing the accusing finger to the two major alien rulers of the land for dividing its people on various counts, particularly the tricky social factor of caste and faiths, forgetting the helping hand that the people unwittingly offered to the rulers during several centuries.

As the 90 - 10 rule goes, the land's people at large, barring exceptions, are known to be hyperactive, namely what they hear from others being 10 on a scale and their reaction to that being 90 on the same scale. Some sections of the populace are marked for their unstoppable habit of indulging in verbal diarrhoea unmindful of consequences, most of the time highly undesirable and also avoidable. Dualities and differences have impacted the behaviour of people to the point of traditions and customs have unwittingly polarised the members of families, not to forget residents in a given neighbourhood.

The land's elders of the past centuries have gifted us countless proverbs, idioms and wise saying, in almost all languages of the country based on their life's experience, every one of which serves as guidelines for orderly living. The political class of our times cannot be absolved of the charge of polarising the country's people for their short-term gains. The onus of being wary of these anti-people fraternity totally lies in the lap of the nation's diaspora.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Prevention of suicide is a grave concern for India as people across all age groups fall prey to it. Extensive stress and the inability to handle the same pushes people towards suicide. A Lancet study published last year indicated that suicide was the leading cause of death in the age range of 15 - 29 years. The latest report from the National Crime Records Bureau shows that the youth belonging to the age bracket of 18 to 30 years constitutes the largest slab of national suicides — as much as 34.1%. One of the prime reasons why suicide prevention has not gained prominence is the sorry state of our mental health care infrastructure. Although mental disorders are one of the major causes of suicide in the country, little has been done to tackle this effectively. It is a proven fact that depression, bipolar disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), schizophrenia, borderline personality disorder and substance abuse are common psychiatric issues that increase the risk of suicide.

'Unicorn' puppy with tail growing from head

Missouri: A puppy with a tail growing from the middle of its forehead has become a viral superstar after he was abandoned and left in the 'freezing cold'.

Rescue organisation Mac's Mission found the pup, who also had a foot injury, on the street along with another older dog and took them both under its wing. Staff named the adorable doggo 'Narwhal the Little Magical Furry Unicorn' and he quickly established a huge fan base after videos were uploaded on Facebook . The Missouri-based centre 'specialises in special' and looks to help dogs which have been abused, injured or have birth defects who would die without their help.

The puppy was taken to the vets, after being reassured by staff it wasn't going to be scary, to try and find out why the tail is there, if it was connected and most importantly, if it can wag.

After the appointment, the centre wrote : "The extra tail is not connected to anything and has no real use other than making him the COOLEST PUPPY EVER!"

Man builds dream home from shipping containers

Houston: Stacking 11 metal shipping containers on top of each other doesn't sound like the idea way to build your dream three-story house, but in designer Will Breaux's case that's exactly what it took, and the result is nothing short of awe-inspiring.

Owner Will Breaux after using 3D rendering software to make it a reality, started working on a real-life version of it at the edge of downtown Houston. All the 11 metal containers were set in place in a single day in 2017, using a giant crane. But as it stands, two thirds of the three-story house is incomplete, so it's still a work in progress.

VOICE OF THE READER

Those who had forgotten NTM School are remembering it now. Why?

Sir,

I have been reading news reports about the proposed Viveka Memorial at NTM School premises on a daily basis. While some are for the construction of the Memorial, others are opposing the same.

D. Nagabhushan

I would like to say to those who are opposing the Memorial that at the time when the School was in a dilapidated condition I was a Corporator (during 2005-06). To save the School I had got Rs. 8.80 lakh released from Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) towards restoration of the School building. Lions Club also came forward to help and adopted the School.

In fact, the then Deputy Commissioner had inaugurated the restoration work. Lions Club managed the School's day-to-day affairs so well that the student strength began to increase. At that time the School had a total of strength of 50 students.

Later, a few vested interests used their power and forced Lions Club out of School's administration thereby affecting the development of the institution so much so by 2012 there were just about less than 10 students.

Now, the land belonging to the School has been given to Sri Ramakrishna Ashram for the construction of Viveka Memorial. The MCC has also transferred the Khata of the above said land in Ashram's name. The District Authorities have made arrangements to transfer children of NTM School to nearby Government Devaraja School which is run on modern lines with total infrastructure. The students here are getting better education than in the NTM School.

Ironically, people and organisations which had not raised their voices when the School was in a pathetic condition are now creating unnecessary problems by launching 'Save NTM School Campaign.' For what end? Can't they see the bigger picture for our future generation?

I am of the opinion that Viveka Memorial would be a great Cultural and Spiritual Centre that will inspire our youngsters. It will have a modern library, yoga centre, meditation centre and centres to promote Indian culture. Therefore, I request all Mysureans to support the construction of this historical monument that will further enrich the cultural and educational activities of our city.

— D. Nagabhushan, former Corporator

Three including two women arrested for blackmailing priest

Basavaraju

Mahalakshmi

Nagarathnamma

Kollegal, Nov. 15 (Nagendra& BCT)- Kollegal Town Police have arrested three persons including two women for allegedly blackmailing a priest and extorting Rs. 19.95 lakh and a gold chain weighing 18 grams from him after threatening to 'expose' him in TV channels.

The priest, fearing social stigma and reputation, had meekly handed over the money but filed a Police complaint when the blackmailers demanded Rs. 50 lakh.

The arrested have been identified as 42-year-old Basavaraju, his wife 35-year-old Mahalakshmi alias Sarojamma and her sister 35-year-old Nagarathnamma all from Hessarghatta near Bengaluru. The Police have seized Rs. 17.77 lakh cash and the gold chain from the accused.

The victim, T.V. Sreenivasa Raghavan is serving as a priest at Kollegal Sri Anjaneyaswamy Temple and he is a well-known name in astrology and many people would come to him to seek spiritual and astrological advice. People used to come from far and wide to consult him on various issues and even Sreenivasa Raghavan used to go to their houses to perform pujas and other rituals.

Three years back, Basavaraju and his wife Mahalakshmi approached Sreenivasa Raghavan and performed several rituals at the Anjaneyaswamy Temple. Both the families became closer and the priest too went to Basavaraju's house at Hessarghatta and performed pujas there.

Mahalakshmi also asked Sreenivasa Raghavan to write the horoscopes of her children and he readily obliged. However, on last May, Mahalakshmi called up Sreenivasa Raghavan and allegedly told him that during one of the rituals, he had made her half-naked.

She told him that she would go to TV channels to expose him and also threatened him that she would reveal to the media that he (Sreenivasa Raghavan) allegedly tried to sexually harass her in the name of rituals.

She demanded Rs. 3 lakh from the priest. Fearing consequences and social stigma, Sreenivasa Raghavan, though innocent, agreed to pay Rs. 3 lakh as he dreaded his name being flashed on TVs. Even after the money was paid, the blackmailing did not stop. Mahalakshmi would repeatedly call Sreenivasa Raghavan and demand for money. She also took away his gold chain weighing 18 grams. In all, the Priest ended up paying Rs. 19.95 lakh to the blackmailers.

Basavaraju and Mahalakshmi was joined by the latter's sister Nagarathnamma, who also blackmailed the priest. On Nov. 8, Sreenivasa Raghavan filed a complaint with the Police after the blackmailers demanded Rs. 50 lakh. Laying a trap, the Police asked Sreenivasa Raghavan to inform the blackmailers to come to Kollegal and take the Rs. 50 lakh. They were asked to come to a place in Maddur where a Police team was waiting.

As per plan, Basavaraju, Mahalakshmi and Nagarathna came to Maddur on Nov. 9 and the Police easily arrested them. They were later produced before a Court and have been sent to judicial custody.

City Court sentences man to death in double murder case

Mysuru, Nov. 15 (KS)- City's Fourth Additional District and Sessions Court has awarded death sentence to a man in a double murder case.

The convict is Isak Pasha alias Ishad Pasha, a native of Uttar Pradesh and residing in Beedi Colony in city.

A carpenter by profession, Isak, though married already, had also married Siddique Bhanu and was residing with her but was not going to work. He used to lead life from the earnings of his wife Bhanu besides coming home drunk and picking up quarrel frequently.

On May 7, 2009 midnight, a fight broke out between Isak and Bhanu and Isak stabbed Bhanu with a chisel on her neck and killed her besides stabbing Suraya Bhanu, daughter of Siddique Bhanu's sister on her neck with the same chisel and fled from the spot.

While Siddique Bhanu died on the spot, Suraya was admitted to K.R. Hospital in city where she succumbed to injuries on May 27, 2009. Suraya had given her dying declaration to the Police at the hospital.

Though a case was registered at Udayagiri Police Station, the accused had gone absconding and on Feb. 21, 2017, eight years after the crime was committed, the then Udayagiri Inspector Santosh, arrested Isak Pasha in Bengaluru, conducted investigation and had submitted a charge-sheet to the Court.

Abracadabra... Abracadabra...

By K.B. Ganapathy

Our leaders must look at the SURVIVAL of our country

[...not at their own personal SURVIVAL at the cost of the Nation]

TIME: What has been the key to your political survival?

Netanyahu: I don't look at my survival. I look at the survival of the country, its durability, its future.

In the Book Talk column of Star of Mysore dated Nov. 13, 2019, I saw a brief write-up on the book "Kashmir's Untold Story Declassified" by Iqbal Chand Malhotra and Maroof Raza. Since I am a great fan of Maroof Raza, that highly cultured and learned person who often participates in TV panel discussions and the write-up was by R. Chandra Prakash, a social activist and former President of Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP), a well-known NGO of our city, I decided to read the original book itself and learn more about J&K at a time when our Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah put an end (hopefully) to the tyranny of Muslim majoritarianism of 72 years in a Secular country.

In the past 40 years of my editorship of Star of Mysore, I have written a number of articles about J&K in this column. British betrayal of Hindu (Secular) India was clear from the very beginning, in fact before and immediately after Partition.

The book says that most historians are unaware of the fact that the British Governor of the North West Frontier Province (NWFP) Sir George Cunningham had been cleverly planning for the Partition and Transfer of Power since 1944. A Frontier Committee was formed to recommend a new Frontier policy and this Committee recommended that Regular Indian Army troops be withdrawn and replaced by tribal levies (tribal forces) and the recommendation was immediately implemented.

The immediate effect of this was removal of all Hindu and Sikh Army Officers and soldiers from NWFP, the Northern Frontier of India (J&K). This was followed by disbanding of the Indian Army at the Baluchistan Frontier. In April 1946, the British Indian Army Commander-in-Chief Field Marshal Sir Claude Auchinleck called a high-level conference and took a unanimous decision to replace regular troops in all tribal areas and replace them with tribal scouts and Khasadars. Likewise steps were taken in other Commands too till 23rd July 1947. See the time line! India got Independence on 15th August 1947. So it was clear that British Army Chief Field Marshal Auchinleck had planned and facilitated the so-called 'Tribal Attack' on Kashmir by Pakistan long before the Partition of India on 15th August 1947.

The book makes an important disclosure, with proof, that the British State was involved in the 'Tribal Attack' that took place under the code name 'Operation Gulmarg.'

There was a district in the Northern Frontier of British India known as Bannu. The Political Agent of Bannu in August 1947 was one Arthur Dredge. Bannu Army Brigade's Brigade Commander was one Brig. C.P. Murray. On 19th, August 1947 (five days after India got Independence) Brig. Murray was on duty, 41 kms away from Bannu.

The Political Agent Arthur Dredge was the only British Officer at work that day in Bannu.

In the absence of Brig. Murray, a Sikh Officer, Maj. Onkar Singh Kalkat, was in-charge of the Brigade. "On 20th August 1947, a courier arrived carrying a demi-official letter from Gen. Sir Frank Messervy at General Headquarters in Rawalpindi. As he was authorised to do so, Maj. Kalkat opened the letter. Attached to the letter was an appendix entitled, 'Operation Gulmarg — The plan for the Invasion and Capture of Kashmir.' The day for the commencement of the operation was 20th October 1947."

As I continued to read further, my heart began to feel for Maj. Onkar Singh Kalkat. I remembered the lament of my old friend from Intelligence Bureau (IB) who was never tired of telling, "For whom the bell tolls?" in our country. So much of patriotic zeal and love for the country by men like my IB friend and Maj. Kalkat at the risk of their personal freedom and life. To what end? If the men in power at the helm are lacking in patriotism and love for the country, of what avail is the sacrifice by those who work for the security of our country?

How should our leaders at the top as President, Prime Minister, Defence Minister or those of similar responsibility respond to matters relating to our country's defence and security? I would say our leaders should be like Donald Trump, Narendra Modi or the Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. For Donald Trump it is "America First." So also for our Prime Minister Narendra Modi it is "India First" and for Benjamin Netanyahu "Israel First." I was reading an interview given by Netanyahu to the TIME magazine of America. Here is the question and his answer.

TIME: What has been the key to your political survival?

Netanyahu: I don't look at my survival. I look at the survival of the country, its durability, its future.

As a true, loyal Officer of the forces Maj. Kalkat, a troubled man now, calls up his Brigade Commander Brig. C.P. Murray and related his startling discovery about 'Operation Gulmarg.' Brig. Murray rushed back to Bannu the very next day (21st August 1947) and was equally disturbed. He realised that Maj. Kalkat's life would be in danger if people came to know that he knew about the 'Operation Gulmarg.' Apparently under advice and help from Brig. Murray, Maj. Kalkat dispatched his wife and son to India. Later, how Maj. Kalkat reached India and Delhi was an odyssey. However, luck was on Maj. Kalkat's side. He was smuggled out by his faithful Muslim soldiers to safety... but his travails did not end as he was found out by the Pakistani authorities who were hunting for him. But, again a kind British Base Commander refused to hand him back. Maj. Kalkat then reaches Amritsar in a goods-train and lands in Delhi, the capital of Hindu India, nay Secular India.

The book narrates what happened in Delhi in a matter of fact manner. But as a Nationalist Indian, my eyes went wet while reading what was written. Let me quote:

"That same day, he met Maj. Gen. Kulwant Singh and Maj. Gen. P.N. Thapar and briefed them about the information he had about Operation Gulmarg. Both Thapar and Singh were unconvinced, but were duty-bound to take him to meet the Defence Minister, Sardar Baldev Singh, on 19 October. The invasion was three days away. A sceptical Baldev Singh asked the Army's Intelligence Directorate to verify Kalkat's account. However, the British staffed Intelligence Directorate paid no heed to Kalkat's account and no action was taken!"

When on 15th October 1947, the new Prime Minister of J&K Justice Mehr Chand Mahajan, met a group of Hindu and Sikh refugees from Pakistan, they too reported that they had seen large concentration of tribal Afghans in the area around Abbottabad (do you remember the name?). The Prime Minister of J&K ignored the information.

It was only after the invasion — Operation Gulmarg — had started in full swing that the importance of Maj. Kalkat's warning was taken seriously. Maj. Kalkat was taken before Prime Minister Nehru on 24th October, 1947. But it was now too late...

Reading this I was reminded of how our Officers ignored the warning given by shepherds of Kargil about the presence of Pakistan Army personnel on our territory in 1999. George Fernandes, the then Defence Minister, who had visited the area had told the press that the same shepherds had told him about the intrusion by Pak Army. But it was too late... Result was Kargil war. Intelligence report was not taken seriously as in 1947!

Well, have we not seen how the Indian Government handled terrorism in the past till, by God's grace, people voted for BJP and Narendra Modi became the Prime Minister? In their thirst for power, protecting the vote-bank became more important than protecting the country from terrorists.

Do our leaders know that because of our own blunders like those mentioned above, India lost two parts of J&K? In 1947 we lost Gilgit and Muzaffarabad (PoK) that were swallowed by Pakistan. And in 1950 China swallowed up a larger part of Ladakh. Our leaders must introspect and find an answer to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's eternal question: If India loses, who wins?

Wake up India

Tale of missing grills and passing the buck

- Iron grills in front of Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle stolen
- MCC Zone 9, 6 and 1 Development Officers shift responsibility

Mysuru, Nov. 15 (MK&BCT)- Even as the Heritage City of Mysuru is celebrating the year-long Birth Centenary celebrations of the last ruler of Mysore, Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar with a host of memorable events commemorating the pro-people rule of the erstwhile King, the iron grills in front of his statue in the heart of the city have been stolen.

The beautiful Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle (earlier known as Hardinge Circle) was inaugurated just two years ago and to protect the landmark structure and the white marble statue, iron grills were installed around the statue.

Now thanks to lack of maintenance, the iron grills right in front of the statue have been stolen. Surprisingly, thieves have made away with a portion of the grills at a place that is busy 24/7 with vehicles passing by every moment. Even the Police who generally patrol the area failed to prevent the theft.

Interestingly, there are two CCTV cameras covering the Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle and even the cameras have not recorded the theft. The cameras are placed on the two sides of the Circle and the visuals show only the movement of vehicles while they are incapable of recording the visuals of the front portion of the Circle.

When Star of Mysore called the officers from Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Zone 9, 1 and 6 under whose responsibility the maintenance of Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle comes, the officers just passed on the buck without even bothering to answer the questions.

The Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle actually comes under Zone 9 and when the Circle was built, the responsibility of maintaining it was jointly handed over to Zone 9, 1 and 6. Zone 9 Development Officer Harish told SOM that his Zone does not have anything to do with the Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle. "All the responsibility of maintaining the Circle lies with Zone 1," he said. Next, SOM called Zone 1 Development Officer Bharath who straight away passed the buck on Zone 6. "We are in no way related to the maintenance of the Circle as it comes under Zone 6," was his curt reply.

After listening to Development Officers of Zone 9 and 1, SOM then called Zone 6 Development Officer Nagaraju also who denied that his Zone has the responsibility of maintaining the Circle. "The jurisdiction of Zone 6 ends near the Selfie Spot," Nagaraju said. He, however, added that the missing grill has come to his notice. "We will take measures to repair the same," he added.

As the maintenance of Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle does not come under Zone 9, 1 and 6, as per respective Zone Development Officers, the question now is who has the responsibility of maintaining the Circle? Only the MCC top brass has the answer.

Over a cup of evening Tea

A Tribute... from a Reluctant Pupil !

This morning I attended the Month's Mind Mass held to pray for the soul of Mrs. Dorothy Fernandez, who passed away at the age of eighty six on the 15th of last month. She was my music teacher when I was studying at the Good Shepherd Convent Primary School during the early sixties and I was perhaps her most reluctant pupil ! I say this because I was a very reluctant pupil not just in music but also in almost every other subject because the whole concept of anyone trying to educate me or anyone else for that matter in a closed classroom was anathema to me.

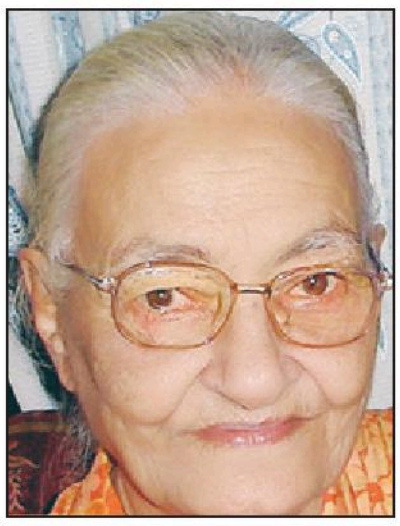
When I started my schooling I was a jungle-bred brat who had spent all his walking days exploring the wide countryside in a large coffee estate. The only thing I enjoyed doing was exploring every thicket in pursuit of spiders, snakes or lizards and climbing trees to pluck and eat different kinds of wild berries which used to stain my teeth and lips a brilliant red or a deep purple. Thankfully, the workers on our estate in whose company I used to always be had taught me from a very early age which ones of those were safe to eat and which ones I had to stay away from.

It is a different matter that on more than one occasion I did try to sample a few of the proscribed ones too with some very unpleasant results. Well, you cannot blame me entirely for this as we all know very well that forbidden fruit has had the greatest attraction for mankind over the ages which is why we are all here on this earth instead of still being in heaven!

Since my first school was the wide countryside I naturally developed an aversion to my formal schooling process which started when I was five and I quickly became an expert in finding ways and means to skip going to school. One day it could be a completely fake stomach ache and on another it could be an overcast sky or even a broken slate pencil.

Miss Dorothy as a young girl.



Dorothy in her later years.

My teachers who had all seen reluctant students like me all through their teaching years could see through every one of my tricks very easily and would evolve ways and means of bringing me around. Of all my teachers Miss Dorothy was undoubtedly the one who had the toughest time in taming me because in addition to my hatred for school I somehow had an intense aversion for singing and music which is what she used to teach.

My teachers who had all seen reluctant students like me all through their teaching years could see through every one of my tricks very easily and would evolve ways and means of bringing me around.

Of all my teachers Miss Dorothy was undoubtedly the one who had the toughest time in taming me because in addition to my hatred for school I somehow had an intense aversion for singing and music which is what she used to teach. Her class was always the last class of the day when we would all be marched to the large singing hall with Gothic doors and windows and made to stand in orderly rows. The session would start with an announcement by Miss Dorothy about the songs we would have to sing for that day. That is when I would start looking out of the window nearest to me to locate my favourite family of Mynahs or monkeys that used to be frolicking on the row of tall Indian Cork (Millingtonia hortensis) trees just outside the hall. They were my greatest source of relief from the sorrow of singing!

But since Miss Dorothy was well aware of my frequent spells of distraction she would look out for me as eagerly as I would look out for my arboreal friends and motion me to pay attention to my singing which used to have only a very brief effect. That was when she used to walk up to me and holding my hand in hers, lead me to the place where she used to sit and play the grand piano. But she used to do all this without a pause in her melodious singing!

After the singing class she would hug me and pat my back and compliment me on my great performance and tell me that I would one day become a great singer! I am still waiting for that day but that was the kind of faith, love and affection that bubbled in the heart of my beloved teacher! Since she noticed that I had a great fascination for knowing how her piano produced its different notes she would open it and show me how the keys, strings and foot pedals worked in unison to produce music. She also succeeded in making me learn to play the first few notes of the nursery rhyme, 'Jack and Jill' on the piano but try as much as she did she could not make me go up the hill with them! Nevertheless, she continued to be my close friend, consoling and soothing me when I was hurt or upset and always giving my parents a very good report about me at every parent-teacher meeting!

Our love for each other continued beyond my schooling years and I used to visit her very often even as College student. Through these visits her husband Edward Fernandez too became a very close friend of mine and we used to spend hours together at their house in Karunapura chatting late into the nights. He used to work for the railways as a loco-pilot and he was a most interesting story teller who had an inexhaustible collection of ghost stories some of which he would insist were his own personal experiences. Then came a time when he developed a persistent fever which had all the signs of being tubercular in origin but which failed to respond to anti-tubercular treatment.

One day, while I was a second year medical student, he told me about it when I visited him. That was when I casually remarked that he should ask his treating doctor at the Railway Hospital to test him for Brucellosis as it mimicked Tuberculosis very closely. He did just that and that very humble doctor heeded the suggestion of his patient's still green-eared medical student friend and found that he was indeed suffering from Brucellosis! With proper treatment he was quickly cured of his ailment much to everyone's relief. But it was not my great clinical acumen that had done the miracle. It was simply a coincidence that I had just then attended a class on Brucellosis a few days before our meeting! I pray that the kind Lord grants Miss Dorothy, her husband Eddie and their dear son Lloyd whom they lost in a most tragic motorcycle accident, eternal rest in heaven. Amen!

SC dismisses ED plea to cancel DKS bail

Don't copy-paste arguments from Chidambaram case: Court to ED

New Delhi, Nov. 15- The Supreme Court has dismissed a plea by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) challenging the Delhi High Court order granting bail to Karnataka Congress leader D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) in money-laundering case. Taking up the petition this morning, the SC Bench, comprising Justices R.F. Nariman and S. Ravindra Bhat, also pulled up the ED for copy-pasting arguments from Chidambaram's case without editing.

Shivakumar

The SC also issued a notice in the petition filed by DKS seeking quashing of charges against him by the Income Tax Department.

The Delhi HC had on Oct. 23 granted bail to Shivakumar. The ED had moved the SC challenging the Delhi HC decision granting bail to DKS saying the Congress leader could tamper with the evidence in the case.

Shivakumar was booked along with Hanumanthaiah an employee at Karnataka Bhavan in New Delhi and others for alleged offences under Prevention of Money Laundering Act.

The case was based on a chargesheet filed by the I-T Department against them last year before a special court in Bengaluru on charges of alleged tax evasion and 'hawala' transactions worth crores or rupees.

The I-T Department has accused Shivakumar and his alleged associate S.K. Sharma of indulging in transactions involving huge amounts of unaccounted money on a regular basis through 'hawala' channels with the help of three other accused.

Free breakfast for pourakarmikas

Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath serving breakfast to pourakarmikas in city this morning.

Mysuru, Nov.15 (RKB&DM)- Marking Kanakadasa Jayanti, the Mysuru City Corporation's (MCC) ambitious plan to provide free breakfast to all it's over 2400 pourakarmikas daily took off today with Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath launching it near Madegowda Circle in Rajivnagar coming under Ward11, represented by her, at a function this morning, by having breakfast with the pourakarmikas.

The launch venue was specially decorated with flowers and rangolis. Pourakarmikas had drawn huge colourful Rangolis, thus displaying their artistic skills.

Speaking to SOM after the launch, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath said that she was very much delighted to see the restart of the MCC's ambitious scheme of providing breakfast to all it's pourakarmikas who toil to keep our city clean and hygienic.

Noting that although the scheme was introduced last year, the Mayor said that the scheme was discontinued after there were many complaints from pourakarmikas about poor quality and quantity of breakfast being served to them. Now, the MCC after coming up with a new plan, is determined to provide nutritious, tasty and hygienic breakfast to all pourakarmikas, she said and added that the MCC authorities will make a regular check of the quality of food if there are any complaints.

On the first day today, the menu was uppittu, kesaribath and a sweet. The pourakarmikas were also provided half-a litre mineral water bottle.

The MCC will incur an annual expenditure of Rs. 1.83 crore for the scheme. The tender for providing the breakfast has been awarded to a Hyderabad-based mass caterer Rao Raghuveer Singh Seva Samiti for a period of one year.

All civic workers, including 2,168 pourakarmikas working in the sweeping and cleanliness section and 238 working in the underground drainage section will be served with 400 grams of quality and nutritious breakfast everyday between 8 am and 10 am at designated points in all the 65 wards.

Pourakarmikas relishing uppittu and kesaribath.*

The breakfast is prepared at a catering facility at Rajarajeshwarinagar in Dattagalli second stage and delivered to all designated points in time.

A total of 18 chefs and 12 assistants and cleaning personnel are involved in the making of breakfast, which will be served on a areca plate.

The menu, changes every day and will include uppittu, ricebath, four idlis, bisibele bath, curd rice, tomato bath and lemon rice, to be served on designated days.

When the scheme was first launched last year, the responsibility of serving the breakfast was entrusted to Indira canteens. But as regular complaints on poor quality and quantity of food began to reach the MCC, the civic body discontinued the scheme itself after some days.

Now, the MCC after coming up with a new plan, has introduced the scheme afresh, which has brought cheers to over 2,400 civic workers.

Meena, a pourakarmika woman from Bharath Nagar said that the breakfast provided to them when the scheme was introduced last year was of poor quality, which gave rise to many health issues, with many civic workers complaining about abdominal problems. As they refused to eat the breakfast, the MCC discontinued the scheme. But they are now delighted that the scheme has been restarted, she said and added that what the pourakarmikas needed was a quality and hygienic breakfast.

Pointing out that as they have to leave their homes early in the morning, they cannot prepare breakfast, Meena said that they cannot have their breakfast at hotels either as they cannot afford it most of the times and also hotels will be far off from their workspots. She thanked the MCC for the scheme, which she said will be of huge benefit to the civic workers.

Rathna, another pourakarmika woman, said that most of the times she would work hungry without having breakfast as hotels were far from her workspot and she had little time to walk to a hotel. Now, she is feeling delighted that the MCC has come to their help by providing free breakfast daily, she said and thanked the Mayor and the MCC Commissioner for the launch of the breakfast scheme.

MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde, Additional Commissioner Shashikumar, Zone 8 Assistant Commissioner Kuberappa, Health Officer Dr. Jayanth, catering Contractor Manjunath and others were present.

Vishwanath visits Ch. Hill

Mysuru, Nov. 15- A day after he joined the BJP and got the party (BJP) ticket to contest from Hunsur for the Dec. 5 by-poll, senior leader and former Minister A.H. Vishwanath visited Chamundi Hill this morning and offered prayers to the deity at the Hill Temple.

Later, speaking to pressperson, Vishwanath said that he was in a depressed state when he visited the Hill Temple a fortnight ago as some leaders had made baseless charges against him. But now his mind was free and today he had visited the Hill Temple and prayed for the victory of all the disqualified legislators who are contesting on a BJP ticket in the Dec.5 by-poll.

Later, Vishwanath visited the BJP Office in city, where he addressed the party workers.

Claiming that it was MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad who brought him to the party, Vishwanath recalled his long association with Sreenivasa Prasad and said that it was Prasad who brought him closer to Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa.

Maintaining that it was a meeting with Prasad at the latter's residence in Mysuru, which triggered the collapse of the coalition government, Vishwanath expressed confidence that all the disqualified legislators will win the by-polls.

Lashing out at former Chief Ministers Siddharamaiah and H.D. Kumaraswamy, he came down heavily against former assembly speaker K.R. Ramesh Kumar, who he said had acted on the directions of the two former Chief Ministers to disqualify rebel JD(S) and Congress MLAs.

Strictly adhering to classicism

By Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan

Sri Nadabrahma Sangeetha Sabha has the practice of honouring a senior veena player with the title 'Vainika Brahma' every year in memory of Sangeetha Kalanidhi late Veena Doreswamy Iyengar. This year, Dr. Vijayaraghavan from Mysuru was honoured with this title in the presence of Modamani, senior art patron K.V. Murthy and D. Balakrishna, son of Doreswamy Iyengar. A veena-based programme 'Vainika Vaibhava' was also arranged as part of this programme.

On the occasion, Dr. Vijayaraghavan gave a veena concert with Tumkur B. Ravishankar on mridanga and Sharat Kaushik on ghata.

Vijayaraghavan has a traditional and chaste way of playing veena with no gimmicks, adhering to strict classicism. In the two-hour concert, he included compositions from The Trimurtys, Mysore Vasudevacharya and an RTP.

The concert began with the 'Vanajaksha' varna by Venkatagiriyappa that was tagged on to 'Gajananayutam Ganeshwaram' by Muthuswami Deekshitar in Chakravaka. The dexterity of swaras to the pallavi portion was delightful. 'Terateeyagarada' by Gaulipantu and 'Bagayanayya' in Chandrajyoti by Tyagaraja were good choice.

The alapana of Dharmavati stood out for its modulations in the gamakas that conveyed the

raga bhava and the clarity of the phrases. 'Bhajana seya rada' by Mysore Vasudevachar was a treat that was heightened by the support from Tumkur Ravishankar who filled the gaps wonderfully well.

The RTP in Sarasangi flowed smoothly and the nuances of the raga and the tana were captivating. Vijayaraghavan sang the pallavi before the rendition. Taniyavartanam followed with Ravishankar on mridanga and Sharat Kaushik on ghata, which regaled the audience.

The post-tani part included 'Narayana Te Namo Namo' by Annamacharya in Behag (wrongly announced as Purandaradasa's), 'Narayana Ninna Naamada Smaraneya' in Shuddha Dhanyasi by Purandaradasa and a tillana by Kannaswami in Purnachandrika.

New Chennai flight a boon:MP

The 72-seater ATR aircraft will depart from Chennai Airport at 6.50 am and land at Mysuru airport at 8.10 am and depart from the city at 8.30 am to reach Chennai at 10 am.

Expressing happiness over the new two-way flight to Chennai — which is in addition to the regular TruJet flight to Chennai that leaves Mysuru at 8.35 pm — Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, who was instrumental in bringing a host of flights to the once nearly-abandoned Mysore Airport, said that the flight immensely benefits VISA seekers.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, he said that with two-way flights to Chennai in the morning and in the evening, businessmen and industrialists can finish their meetings in Chennai in a single day and head back to Mysuru. "Moreover, the morning flight will prove a boon for hundreds of VISA seekers who visit the Consulate General of the United States of America in Chennai," he said.

Apart from the US Consulate, Chennai has the offices of German Consulate General (Federal and Foreign Office), Thailand Visa Application Centre, Italy Visa Application Centre and Australian Visa Application Centre. People who regularly visit these offices from Mysuru generally take a train but now they can opt for flights saving time.

Today's inaugural flight to Chennai from Mysore Airport had 28 passengers while there were 22 people flying from Chennai. The fare from Chennai to Mysuru was Rs. 2,200 while the air fare from Mysuru to Chennai was Rs. 2,000 today.

Passenger feedback

Mysuru Airport Director R. Manjunath said the airline's morning schedule is based on passenger and public feedback. There was a huge demand for the morning flight to Chennai and TruJet decided to cash in on the opportunity, he said. With this flight, Mysuru has 14 flight movements — both inward and outward — and the city is connected to Chennai, Kochi, Hyderabad, Goa and Bengaluru.

MP Pratap Simha said that new flights will be operated to Belagavi and Shirdi soon. "There is also a demand from passengers for a daily flight to Tirupati," he added.

On the present flight occupancy rates, Manjunath said that all the flights to Kochi, Chennai, Hyderabad and Goa were seeing 80 to 85 percent occupancy. "The occupancy rate of the Bengaluru flight was 30 to 40 percent earlier and now it has grown to 45 to 50 percent," Manjunath added.

Baba Ramdev arrives in Hyderabad flight

Yoga Guru Baba Ramdev, founder of Patanjali Yogpeeth, Haridwar, took the regular Hyderabad fight to land in Mysuru this morning. The Guru is in city to deliver the keynote address at the International Conference on Yoga for Heart Care organised by Ministry of AYUSH at the Convocation Hall of the Karnataka State Open University.

The Alliance Air flight landed at 8.45 am and Ramdev has Z-Plus security. He was welcomed to Mysuru by MP Pratap Simha. Another guest for the Conference Union Minister of State for Defence and Minister of State for AYUSH Sripad Yesso Naik arrived at the Mysore Airport on a chartered Chopper ME 12 at 9.15 am.

'300 acres of land needed for runway expansion'

On the Mysore Airport expansion plans, the MP said that around 300 acres of land near Mandakalli on Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway is needed to expand the Airport for facilitating international flights. At present, the Airport at Mandakalli has a single runway of 5,700 feet in length which is only suitable for ATR planes providing short-haul flight operations.

"The Centre has already cleared the proposal to construct a runway above the Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway and has earmarked Rs.700 crore for the first phase of work. The responsibility of land acquisition lies with the Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB). Once land is acquired, the works will start immediately," Pratap Simha added.

The existing airport is spread over 490 acres and under the expansion project, length of runway will be increased to 7,900 feet and 45 metres width that allows jet aircraft such as Boeing 737 and Airbus A320 to land.

Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, Mysuru Travel Association office-bearers C.A. Jayakumar, B.S. Prashanth and Shivalingu, Mysuru Chamber of Commerce and Industries President A.S. Satish, FKCCI (Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce and Industry) President Sudhakar S. Shetty, Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) Chairman Bhaskar Kalale, Mysuru Hotel Owners Association President C. Narayana Gowda, State BJP General Secretary M. Rajendra and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Thither

Pronunciation: thith-er, thith.

Meaning: To or toward that place or point; there.
Origin: The adverb thither "to or toward that place or point; there" is an old one in English. Its original form in Old English was thæder, altered to thider (among other forms) due to hider. This adverb hider evolved into a word thither frequently appears together with: hither, as in hither and thither "here and there." Thither was largely replaced by there (as hither was by here). If you go back far enough in time, you'll find that thither and there share a common root, as do many humble English function words beginning with th-, including that, this, and the.
Example: We told them that we were travelling, that we had been transported thither, and that they had nothing to fear from us.

THE ODD WORD

Talalgia

Pain in heel or ankle.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

The bee's knees

Meaning: If something is said to be the bee's knees it is excellent - the highest quality.

Origin: It's difficult to know if we need an etymologist or an entomologist for this one.
Bees carry pollen back to the hive in sacs on their legs. It is tempting to explain 'the bee's knees' as alluding to the concentrated goodness to be found around a bee's knee, but there's no evidence to support this explanation. It is also sometimes said to be a corruption of 'business', but there's no evidence to support that either. 'The bee's knees' is one of the phrases that people seem determined to make sense of. But how much sense is there to find? Nor is there any connection with another earlier phrase, 'a bee's knee'. In the 18th century this was used as a synonym for smallness, but has since disappeared from the language, replaced more recently by the less polite 'gnat's bollock': Mrs. Townley Ward - Letters, June 1797 in N. & Q. "It cannot be as big as a bee's knee."

QUOTE BOX

The busy bee has no time for sorrow.— William Blake
